

Required Training Course

Emergency Medicines Vaccines

		CPR Adults & Children	Medicines Administration (Parenteral)	Responding to an Emergency Situation & Management of Anaphylaxis (RESMA)	Delivery of a Vaccination Service	Medicine / Vaccine Specific Module
Validity of Certificate		As stated by training provider (usually 2 years)	Self-Assessment – see course description	2 Years	2 Years	2 Years (except for seasonal influenza – see note below)
Emergency Medicines	Adrenaline auto-injector	✓		✓
	Adrenaline (in other forms)	✓	✓	✓
	Naloxone injection	✓		✓		✓
	Glucagon injection	✓	✓	✓		✓
	Salbutamol inhaler	✓		✓		✓
	Glyceryl Trinitrate spray	✓		✓		✓
	Seasonal Influenza	Experienced	✓	✓		✓
		New/Other	✓	✓	✓	✓
	Pneumococcal Polysaccharide	Experienced	✓	✓		✓
		New/Other	✓	✓	✓	✓
Vaccines	Herpes Zoster	Experienced	✓	✓		✓
		New/Other	✓	✓	✓	✓

Experienced = A pharmacist who administered the influenza vaccination during the 2016/2017 influenza season as an experienced vaccinator, i.e. those who had completed influenza vaccination training in 2015 and vaccinated patients for 2 consecutive years in the last 4 years.
New/Other = All other pharmacists